

We are currently seeking qualified candidates for a Pediatric Cardiac Sonographer position in Nashville, Tennessee.

The Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital, located on the beautiful campus of Vanderbilt University offers this exciting opportunity for a Pediatric Cardiac Sonographer to work in a growing lab accredited by IAC. The primary location will be on the main campus with some coverage of other areas and call rotations as well.

We are looking for a competent, ambitious professional who is enthusiastic about patient care as well as teaching. This position will join a group of 16 dedicated pediatric sonographers, 13 fellows, 26 cardiologists, and 3 CT surgeons who performed over 17,000 echoes, 500 surgeries, 700 Caths, and 300 EP procedures. We are a teaching hospital with exceptional surgical and interventional catheterization programs as well as many ongoing research projects. In addition, our lab covers six satellite outpatient clinics and provides services to several partner facilities throughout the region.

This position requires a high school graduate/GED, and Pediatric Echo registered or registry eligible through ARDMS or CCI within one year of hire. Pediatric echocardiography experience is preferred, however, we are willing to consider less experienced sonographers eager to learn. Prefer graduate of an accredited Cardiovascular/Ultrasound program or equivalent with experience in performing all modalities of echo including 2D and Doppler are required. Experience in three-dimensional imaging, fetal scanning and advanced quantification is desirable.
